

IGB Corporation Berhad

IGB Corporation Berhad ("IGB"), an associate company of Goldis Berhad, was incorporated in Malaysia as a limited company on 12 November 1964 as Ipoh Garden Limited and was listed on the Main Board of Bursa Malaysia Securities Berhad on 10 September 1981, assuming its present name in February 1984. IGB is principally an investment holding and property development company and is also engaged in property investment, property management, retail, hotel operations and construction.

IGB's residential property development is helmed by Tan & Tan Developments Berhad, a strategic subsidiary of IGB and an established property developer in Malaysia. The current projects are focused mainly on niche medium to high end residential markets. In property investments, there is the highly successful Mid Valley Megamall, a retail development with a net lettable area of 1.7 million sq.ft. which opened in November 1999. Mid Valley Megamall forms part of Mid Valley City, a 50 acre mixed-use urban development project which also comprise hotels, office towers and service apartments. The Gardens is a 9.7 acre development within Mid Valley City anchored by a high-end shopping gallery, two landmark office towers and five-star Gardens Hotel & Residences. The project was completed in 2008, led by the opening of The Gardens Mall in September 2007. IGB's hotel portfolio in Malaysia and abroad encompass hotels and service apartment hotels with over 6,000 rooms.
